

Kathy Reehling, Biography CEO and President of CREW Technical Services

Kathy Reehling is CEO and President of CREW Technical Services, a Woman Owned Business Enterprise specializing in Technical Writing, Validation, and Information Technology. Founded in 1992, CREW currently employs 100+ professionals nationally and internationally to meet the needs of its Fortune 500 client base.

A 1981 graduate of Purdue University, Kathy and the executive team have grown CREW to be the fourth largest Women's Business Enterprise in Indianapolis. The Wall Street Journal, the Indiana Business Journal, and the Indianapolis Woman magazine have acknowledged Kathy for her leadership. Other honors include:

- E&Y Entrepreneur of the Year Award Winner, 2004
- 4th Largest Woman-owned Business of Indiana - 2003
- Innovative Business Award – 2003 Indiana Chamber of Commerce
- Top Diversity Owned Business in Indiana, 2002, 2003, and 2005 – DIV2000.com
- Indianapolis Fast Growing Company of 2000 – Indianapolis Business Journal
- E&Y Entrepreneur of the Year Finalist, 1998

Kathy is a member of The Young President's Organization, National Association of Women Business Owners, Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, TechPoint/Women & High Tech, Healthcare Businesswomen's Association, and the Society for Life Science Professionals (ISPE). She also sits on the Board of the Boone County 4-H Fair Association, and WFYI Board of Directors. She and her husband Ron live on a small farm near Thorntown, Indiana, with their children Grant and Amanda.